Progressions of Oakland

- The Oakland Behavior House provides a ridged daily structure for our clients that are more behaviorally challenged. The setting at the Oakland house is very serene. The house sits on 2 acres of land, filled with trees, providing a peaceful atmosphere for the daily challenges the clients have put in place for them. The Oakland house is a more restrictive and structured program. Our goal is to support our clients and to help them to transition into a less restrictive setting. The services that we provide include, but not limited to, transportation to appointments within a 30 mile radius and supervised limited activities. We also provide a 1:1 staffing ratio when it is required. All meals are provided and we encourage our clients to help with the shopping and preparation of meals.
- The Progressions of Oakland Behavior House is located at 1401 E Buell Rd, Oakland Township MI 48306. To set up a tour please contact our Admissions Coordinator, Dorota Nowak at 586 612-3597 or email her here at any time.
